

Please do not allow one media company to own both the television and newspaper companies. Diversity in opinion and multiple points of view are what our nation is about. Otherwise the TV companies, with their shallow news services, will bring mediocrity to the newspapers.